

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public. Finally, the Attorney General intends, at the earliest possible opportunity, to make these public documents available on the Internet on the Department of Justice World Wide Web site.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .49 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Dear Mr. Stearns:

We are pleased that you have engaged Arnold & Porter (the "Firm") to support your provision of legal and advisory services to the Cambodian People Party ("CCP"). The purpose of this letter is to set forth our mutual understanding as to the basis on which our fees and related expenses will be charged with respect to this matter.

1. Fee Calculation. The Firm will charge for professional services at our usual and customary rates for such matters. These charges will be based primarily on our standard hourly rates for services in effect at the time the work is performed. You should be aware that our rates are reviewed at least annually and may be modified to reflect changes in our cost structure.

Our charges will include the time of attorneys and, where applicable, other professionals and paraprofessionals. These charges will also include the time recorded on this engagement by secretaries and word processing personnel. While some firms have elected to recover such elements of overhead through their basic charges for legal services, we believe it is more appropriate to charge our clients for such services only to the extent they are used in a particular engagement. We will be pleased to indicate to you, if you wish, our current standard hourly rates for attorneys and others at various levels of seniority.

You agree to make a preliminary retainer payment to our account in the amount of $25,000, as a revolving prepayment against future invoices returnable to you at the end of our services.

You have advised me that you anticipate our total fees for this service to be not less than $100,000.

2. Reimbursement for Expenses. In performing this engagement, we will inevitably make disbursements and incur other internal charges on your behalf. These are likely to include such items as travel and transportation expenses (including subsistence expenses while on travel); charges for long distance telephone calls; express delivery and postage charges; duplicating charges; expenses associated with overtime work; and any special computer, data processing, or similar expenses that are beyond the capacity of the Firm's existing system. We will bill you at cost for charges paid to third parties, and charges for internal services will be billed at the Firm's usual and customary rates for such services.]

If, in the course of the engagement it is necessary for the Firm to arrange for the services of other outside counsel, experts, or consultants, or to incur other major expenses on your behalf, we will arrange to have the charges for such services or items billed directly, unless other arrangements are agreed to between us.

3. Statements for Fees and Expenses. On a regular basis, generally every month, the Firm will send you a statement covering our fee charges and expenses, providing all such reasonable detail as you may require. All such statements are due and payable within 30 days following your receipt of them. We understand that internal accounts payable processing may occasionally cause delays in the payment of our statements, and I am sure that you understand that undue delays in the payment of our statements increase our costs in providing legal services to all of our clients. For this reason, and in order to avoid burdening clients who pay our statements promptly with the costs we incur when others are late, the Firm reserves the right to impose an additional charge of 1 percent per month from the statement date if statements are not paid in a timely manner.

4. Waiver. Arnold & Porter is a large firm, with offices in four United States cities and in foreign countries. Our practice is broadly based and covers many areas of both domestic and international law. The very size of the firm has created situations where work for one client in a narrow area has barred other lawyers from pursuing major matters, unrelated to the first matter.

In order to avoid the potential for this kind of restriction on our practice, we request an advance agreement that Arnold & Porter will not be disqualified from representing interests adverse to you or CPP in matters that are not substantially related to the matters on which Arnold & Porter has been retained by you or CPP.

This waiver is not intended to, and would not, permit Arnold & Porter to represent interests directly adverse to you or CPP in matters that are substantially related to the work done for you or CPP. Nor is it intended that there be, and there would not be, any waiver of your right not to have confidences or secrets that you transmit to Arnold &

Porter disclosed to any third party or used against you. We would, of course, hold such information that you provide to us in strict confidence.

Accordingly, we request your agreement on your behalf and CPP's that it will not raise any objection to Arnold & Porter's representation of other clients on the basis of you or CPP's retention of Arnold & Porter with respect to matters on which our advice has been or will be sought, and you consent to and waive any objection to Arnold & Porter's representation of other clients, unless the other representation involved Arnold & Porter in representing an interest directly adverse to that of you or CPP on matters that are substantially related to those on which Arnold & Porter represents you or CPP.

If you have any questions about understandings as described above, please let us know.

If the terms of the engagement are acceptable to you, I would appreciate it if you would sign and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter, evidencing your agreement to these terms.

Once again, let me say how pleased we are that you have engaged Arnold & Porter in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

ARNOLD & PORTER

William D. Rogers
